UNIGOLD donates school supplies in educational centers in Restauración

Restauración, Dajabón.- Hundreds of students start the school year with basic tools at the beginning of August, the Canadian company UNIGOLD carried out an operation to deliver school supplies to those schools, which it supports through the corporate social responsibility program.

A large number of students were benefited with the delivery of these school supplies, distributed among children and adolescents belonging to different educational centers, this as a way of supporting families so that their children can attend classes with joy and enthusiasm in the school year next.

These schools are located in areas with scarce Restoration resources, resulting in favoring with these donations families in the different communities of Dajabón. Some of them are: EMI Canada del Loro Innovated Multigrade School, EMI Trinitaria Innovated Multigrade School, EMI Agua Blanca Innovated Multigrade School, EMI Jimenez Innovated Multigrade School, EMI Neyta Abajo Innovated Multigrade School, EMI Valle Nuevo Innovated Multigrade School, Level Educational Center Basic Jose Ant. Salcedo, Basic School Cruz de Cabrera, Educational Center Mariano Cestero, among others.

The school supplies were delivered to the directors of each of the schools, where hundreds of units of pens, backpacks and other supplies for various uses in the school curriculum were distributed, such as pencils, pencils and wax crayons; pencil sharpeners and erasers, as well as rulers.

The work in favor of the less favored students carried out by UNIGOLD is developed within its philosophy of corporate social responsibility, which has one of its most sensitive points in the area of education. Every year, hundreds of actions are deployed in favor of basic, middle and higher education, through programs that support the promotion of ethical and moral values, as well as educational talent, benefiting thousands of students and hundreds of teachers.
